

1855

Robert E. Lee was transferred to the Cavalry to western Texas to help protect the settlers from the Indians. His wife & children were living in Arlington, Virginia.